Graffiti Kings: New York Transit Art of the 1970s (Hardback) - Common By (author) Jack Stewart

Offers an account of the birth of the New York subway graffiti movement during the 1970s. This book reveals what happened behind the scenes when writers put their lives on the line to grab a scrap of fame from a faceless urban landscape. Through personal interviews and over 275 full-color photographs, it provides the origins of subway graffiti.
