Twining's Assam 100 Teabags 250g From Twinings

Strong and mighty Assam teabags Assam is a strong tea grown from our strong relationship with the North Eastern state of Assam, which dates back to when tea was first planted out by the Victorian pioneers. We still buy from the same high quality gardens, on the flood plains of the Great Brahmaputra. Only peak season teas are chosen to give the highest quality Assam tea. The journey from the tea garden to your cup... When it comes to tea we're a little different from everybody else. The way we buy and blend is unique; we choose from more origins than anyone else and have a master blender dedicated to each of these locations. What they don't know about their tea gardens and where to find the best quality, isn't worth knowing. It is said that 7 is a lucky number, for us it's the number of times the master blenders taste each batch to make sure that the quality from its exotic origin reaches your cup.
